

Additional Educational Resources

Septic Systems (Decentralized/Onsite Systems)

Provides links on explaining septic systems, care and maintenance, funding sources, and educational materials such as brochures, posters and mailers.

<https://www.epa.gov/septic>

Managing Your Septic System

Provides information on how septic systems function, how to maintain septic systems and the best practices to ensure the septic system has a long life.

<https://www.pathlms.com/nowra/courses/59159>

Resources for Homeowners

The Michigan State University (MSU) Extension's Septic System Education program provides a comprehensive collection of resources to help homeowners properly manage and maintain their septic systems.

<https://www.pathlms.com/nowra/courses/59159>

Record Keeping Folder

Provides an outline for homeowners on how to keep records on their septic system, fill in the blank style. Also contains information on how to properly manage your septic system, including a detailed overview of what a septic system is and how it works.

<https://www.pathlms.com/nowra/courses/59159>