

Additional Educational Resources

Proper septic system management is essential for homeowners, realtors, and local officials to ensure system longevity, environmental protection, and property value. A variety of educational resources are provided below, so you can personalize your learning on septic.

SepticSmart 2024- Septic System 101

The Septic System 101 webinar is presented by Michigan's Department of Environment, Great Lakes and Energy and provides an overview of how septic systems function and best practices to maintain them.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uv1zbpLXUxw>

Onsite Wastewater Treatment System Homeowner Education

This is a free online interactive training program designed to educate the general public and residential owners on effective management of their septic systems.

<https://www.pathlms.com/nowra/courses/59159>

Frequently Asked Questions about Onsite Wastewater Systems

Addresses a series of frequently asked questions regarding the installation of septic systems. The document provides detailed information about the design, permitting, cost and maintenance of septic systems.

https://www.canr.msu.edu/septic_system_education/uploads/FAQ%20about%20Onsite%20WW%20Systems.pdf